

6th March 2018

Dear Parents.

Re: Year 6 Visit to Kings Heath British Legion on Monday 19th March 2018

As part of their WW2 topic this term, you may be aware that all Y6 pupils have written their own poems about the horrors of war.

To celebrate their powerful pieces of poetry and provide a stage for them to develop their confidence in public speaking, I have organised a poetry recital at Kings Heath's Royal British Legion for them to perform these poems. They are very excited and this should also give them an opportunity to meet some former war veterans to discuss their thoughts on war and peace in modern day; further developing their learning on the topic.

We realise it can be difficult with work commitments, however it would be great if we could expand the audience further by including parents, so if at all possible please do join us on Monday 19th March at 10.30am. Here is the address for the venue, and we are informed that there is some parking around the back, if there are no spaces on the street:

Royal British Legion, Memorial Club, 25 Station Road, Kings Heath, Birmingham B14 7SS

Please can you reply to let me how many of you would like to attend so I can let the Legion know, and help them to ensure there are enough seats. Please also arrive 10-15 minutes early to ensure a prompt start.

Thank you for your continued support and I hope to see lots of you there!

Kind regards

Scott Hewer
